

Meyer Is Winner Of Auto Classic At Indianapolis

Youthful Racer Makes 500-Mile Race in 5:01:33, Setting New Record for Car of Class.

MOORE IS SECOND; SOUDERS IS THIRD

Winner Gets About $35,000 for Victory; Crowd of More Than 135,000 See Race.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 30.—(AP)—A baby-faced youngster just 23 years old, Lou Meyer, of Los Angeles, won the 500-mile automobile race over the Indianapolis motor speedway today, defeating the crack drivers of the nation, while a record-breaking crowd of from 135,000 to 150,000 roared their tribute.

The sleek from Los Angeles, winning his first major race, rode the entire distance without relief, finishing with a lead of about 2 1/2 miles over Lou Moore, whose car at the finish was being driven by Louis Schneider, relief pilot. George Souders, former Purdue university student, winner of the 1927 race, pulled up in third place about five miles behind Meyer.

Hay Kerch, of Philadelphia, holder of the world's straightaway record for the mile, was fourth, trailing about 25 miles behind the flying leader. Fifteen of the original 29 starters finished the punishing grind but with all of the pre-race favorites hopelessly out of it.

Meyer, bumping over the perilous 2 1/2-mile brick track, making only one stop, covered the distance in 5:01:33.75, averaging 99.482 miles an hour. He stopped once for two minutes and fifteen seconds to take on oil, gas and water.

Meyer's average of 99.482 miles per hour set a new record for the track for motors of 91 cubic inches piston displacement. Pete De Paolo set the track record of 101.13 miles per hour in 1925 with a motor of 122 cubic inches displacement. Last year's time was 97.45 with the same size motor as was permitted today.

Drove Old Car.

Meyer, who a week ago did not have enough money to buy a car, was enriched to the extent of about $35,000 as a result of his victory. He only succeeded a week ago in digging up a Boston friend and his car to furnish the money to purchase his car. The machine really is an old timer in the racing game. It was used by Anthony Gullotta in finishing third in the race a year ago.

Given a coat of red paint with a huge No. 30 painted in black on the hood and tail, Meyer was as proud of his car as if it had just come out of the shops.

Looking back over the race, Meyer never was out of the first ten from start to finish. After trailing from ninth to fifth position for the first 250 miles, Meyer suddenly moved up into second place and thereafter he was never worse off than third place.

Meyer broke into racing as a mechanic for Frank Elliott, who has since retired, and a year ago rode a

WILKINS AND AIDE HAILED AT BERLIN BY HIGH OFFICIALS

Berlin, May 30.—(AP)—Captain Wilkins and Lieutenant Elison, army fliers, arrived at Tempelhof field this evening from Copenhagen. They were greeted by government and municipal officials and the American and British ambassadors.

A big crowd awaited the coming of the aviators, who flew a German plane. A score of Lufthansa planes escorted them to the airfield.

UPSHAW PROTESTS KNEE-HIGH DRESS AND 'WET' LEADER

Calls for Bolt From "Booze-Ridden Democratic Party" If Wet Candidate Nominated.

Salina, Mo., May 30.—(Special)—William D. Upshaw, formerly congressman from the Atlanta district, delivered the Memorial day commencement address at Kansas Wesleyan university here tonight.

His subject was "Building America for America." He launched a general attack on any foreign influence affecting American ideals, beginning with the Paris control of American fashions and knee-high dresses of which he said:

"I would like to be an American girl just for one season so I could stand erect in the glory and independence of my American womanhood and pop my finger in the face of infidel Paris and tell that gay town where to get off when she came to giving me mandates about what I shall wear on my lips or on my body—not on my body. And if I were a girl I would not be like some I have seen—I wouldn't have my dress cut too high below and too low be-high."

From this he launched into a general attack on what he termed the wet control of the "booze-ridden democratic party," demanding a straight-out party bolt if the Houston convention nominates anything else than a straight-out house-dry candidate for president, and calling upon the west to unite with the south against the wet domination of the east and the big cities of the country.

He called upon Kansas to join the south in nominating a southern man for president, saying:

"In the name of the continental congress, the 18th amendment and the fellowship of our common flag in our

GOFF IS LEADING IN WEST VIRGINIA

Al Smith Draws Away From Reed as Hoover Sinks Back After Leading in Early Count.

Charleston, W. Va., May 30.—(AP) Senator Guy D. Goff, of West Virginia, and Governor Al Smith, of New York, drew steadily away from their opponents for the republican and democratic presidential preference votes as returns from yesterday's state primary were tabulated tonight.

Goff piled up a lead of 6,412 over Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover in the republican contest with 1,544 precincts out of 2,306 tabulated. Governor Smith likewise improved his position on late returns over Senator James Reed, of Missouri, as the democratic ballots were counted.

Smith Has 42,979.

Smith had 42,979 and Reed 36,740 in 1,165 precincts.

It was the general opinion that "anything might happen" in these races with almost half of the returns yet to be tabulated. Senator Goff's lead widened slowly but steadily throughout the day, but late today Governor Smith was leading Reed by

SPANISH FLIERS LOST 40 HOURS ON OCEAN HOP

Aviators Are Believed To Have Attempted Atlantic Flight Though Reports Are Otherwise.

TRIP PRESUMABLY TO KARACHI, INDIA

Adverse Winds May Have Delayed Ship But Fear Held for Safety as Nothing Is Heard.

New York, May 30.—(AP)—The outcome of one more long distance airplane venture was a matter of mystery tonight.

The Spanish aviators, Captains Ignacio Iglesias and Francisco Jimenez, who set off at noon yesterday from Seville, Spain, on what purported to be a flight to Karachi, India, had not been heard from tonight since the start of their flight. With the elapse of 40 hours since their take-off speculation has arisen as to whether mishap had befallen them, or whether they had not adhered to an original intention and turned their plane toward Havana, Cuba.

No Word Received.

Since the take-off at noon Tuesday there has been no word of any one having sighted the plane, christened Jesus Del Gran Poder—in English, Jesus of the Mighty Power. This and the fact that most of the route to Karachi was over land, where they surely would have been sighted once or twice, has given rise to some questioning as to the direction they actually took.

The Spaniards left Seville and headed east, with the avowed intention of breaking the long-distance flight record held by the Americans, Chamberlin and Levine.

Permission Refused.

It is remembered their first plan was to make a non-stop flight from Seville to Havana, Cuba; in this they were deterred only by their failure to obtain royal authorization unless they used a hydro-airplane.

Intimate friends, however, quoted them as saying that denial of authorization would be forgotten in the event they succeeded in such a flight, while if they failed they would drown and it would not matter anyway. Others intimate with them have held all along, despite avowals to the contrary by the aviators themselves, that the flight was to be to Havana, not to Karachi.

They said the fliers would set out toward the east, but when out of sight of Seville would turn westward on a trans-Atlantic venture.

A flight to Cuba from Seville would necessitate traveling about 4,000 miles, a distance which, at the plane's

STANTON SCHOOL CORNERSTONE LAID

Beloved Southern Poet Is Paid Tribute in Impressive Ceremonies at Site of New City Institution.

Cornerstone for the Frank L. Stanton school, which is destined to be a memorial to the life and works of the first poet laureate of Georgia and one of America's greatest poets, was laid Wednesday with impressive ceremonies.

High officials of the Masonic order, members of the Atlanta school board and members of the Stanton family were among those who attended the function.

Dr. McIntosh M. Burns, school commissioner from the seventh ward, presided, and D. M. Therrell, former school commissioner from the seventh, delivered the principal address on "The Life and Works of Frank L. Stanton." W. S. Richardson, former grand master of Georgia Masons, officiated at the laying proper.

"Mighty Lak a Rose" sung by a chorus from the fifth and sixth grades of the old school, provided a special feature of the event. Mrs. Stanton, Frank L. Stanton, Jr., and Mrs. Percy McGhee, a daughter of the distinguished writer, were present at the ceremony. Members of Battle Hill lodge of Masons officiated.

To Cost $110,000.

The new school will have 10 class rooms, a library, auditorium, cafeteria and gymnasium, will cost $110,000 and will be located on "Battle Hill," one of the most historic and beautiful spots in the vicinity of Atlanta.

The city of Atlanta gave twelve acres of Moseley park for establishment of the institution.

Winding drives and roads will lead to the completed structure of concrete and steel, which is the last word in modern school construction, and which was the first project begun from the $8,000,000 bond issue voted in 1924 for public improve-

GUESTS AT DANCE IN FAMOUS CLUB HOLDUP VICTIMS

More Than $150,000 Loot Taken by Bandits From 200 Indianapolis Merry-makers.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 30.—(AP)—More than 200 guests attending a swiftness day dinner-dance at the Broadmoor Country club northwest of Indianapolis tonight were held up by a number of bandits. Club officials estimated that between $150,000 and $200,000 in money, jewelry and other valuables were taken.

The dance was held in connection with the annual 500-mile Indianapolis motor speedway here today. Several out-of-town guests attended the dance and all in the building were said to have been wearing much valuable jewelry.

At least six men took part in the holdup. About 10 o'clock when the guests were making merry, four men rushed in the main door and ordered the manager, A. S. Lubell, to hold up his hands. With two other companions who had slipped into the building the four suddenly put a halt to the dancing and forced the guests to line up against the wall of the ball room.

All of the guests were forced to throw bill folds, watches, rings, other jewelry and valuables into a large canvas sack. Despite the assertion of A. M. Rosenthal, president of the club, there was no safe in the building, several of the bandits made a search.

Two of the men had sawed-off shotguns. After spending 20 or 30 minutes in the building the six men left in a large sedan and sped toward Indianapolis.

It is estimated the chasers will have to reconnoiter for ten days to recover the loot. In addition to the loot, the bandits are believed to have taken a large sum of money.

Noble's adjutant here sent a message to the Indianapolis police department, including an airplane, he ordered to proceed immediately to Spitzbergen because the Norwegian pilot of the Citta di Milano, after testing the ice off Amsterdam island, decided the small steamer Hobby could not pass the ice.

ROOSEVELT NAMED TO PLACE SMITH'S NAME IN BALLOTS

New York, May 30.—(AP)—The World tomorrow will say that Franklin D. Roosevelt, who nominated Governor Alfred E. Smith for the presidency in 1924, will nominate the governor at the democratic national convention in Houston, Texas, next month.

Friends of the governor let it be known that Mr. Roosevelt, one of the New York executive's closest friends, undoubtedly will receive the honor, although the formal announcement has yet to come from Governor Smith.

Smith is a member of the executive committee of the Roosevelt campaign, and is expected to be one of the speakers at the convention.

Mother Ship Returns to Base, Leaving Groups of Chasseurs To Explore Lonely Land.

NOBILE'S BROTHER NOW FEARS WORST

Emphatically Denies Radio Messages From Lost Crew and Believes Disaster Has Befallen.

BY LARS HANSEN. (Alternate Navigator of the Dirigible Italia.)

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, May 30.—(United News).—The fate of General Umberto Nobille's transpolar dirigible Italia and its crew of 16 men remained obscure tonight, with pessimism increasing as rescue work was hampered by storms and ice.

The Citta di Milano, the Italia's mother ship, which steamed into the northern waters in search of the dirigible, was forced to return today after being threatened with destruction by the ice off Danes Island.

Two detachments of Italian chasseurs were disembarked by the Citta di Milano, one to scan the northern coast of Spitzbergen and the other to penetrate into the interior of the island. The ship had heard no news of the lost explorer.

Nobile's entourage here was deeply discouraged by the Citta di Milano's failure to force its way northward or obtain news of Nobille.

Owing to absence of ice between Amsterdam island and Kings Bay, the Citta di Milano covered the distance with surprising speed.

The captain of the mother ship said the detachments landed consisted of four chasseurs each and were accompanied by Norwegian guides.

The commander, Nobille's brother, expressed doubts regarding the theory that the Italia had landed on Amsterdam island. He was pessimistic in discussing the probable fate of the dirigible.

It is estimated the chasers will have to reconnoiter for ten days to recover the loot. In addition to the loot, the bandits are believed to have taken a large sum of money.

FOUR FLIERS TO HOP TODAY FOR HONOLULU

Huge Plane Ready for Flight From California to Australia.

Oakland, Calif., May 30.—(AP)—Four aviators announced themselves ready this evening to hop off from the Oakland airport tomorrow morning for Honolulu on the first leg of a flight to Australia in the tri-motored monoplane Southern Cross.

The men who will attempt the hazardous 7,788 mile flight across the Pacific are Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith and Charles T. O. Ulm, Australians, and Lieutenant Harry W. Lyons and James Warner, Americans.

Kingsford-Smith is commander of the flight and Ulm will act as relief pilot. Both are former members of the British Royal Air force.

Lyons, a graduate of the naval academy at Annapolis and former naval officer, will act as navigator, while Warner, also a former naval man, is going along as radio operator.

The Southern Cross is a sister plane to the one used by Commander Richard Byrd in his flight to the north pole. The huge ship was pronounced in first-class shape today.

The men are said to have been bare-headed and in shirt sleeves. Detectors J. C. Davis and W. J. Anderson investigated.

TWO COUNTIES SEEK TO ENJOIN HIGHWAY BOARD

Tax Payers of Toombs and Emanuel File Petition To Halt Paving Contracts.

DATE OF HEARING SET FOR JUNE 15

Petitioners Charge Type of Paving Contemplated Would Be Inadequate To Bear Traffic.

Suit to enjoin the state highway board, of which John N. Holder is chairman, from letting contracts under inadequate asphalt specifications for 30 miles of highway in Emanuel and Toombs counties was filed Wednesday afternoon in Fulton superior court by four citizens, two each from the affected counties, appearing in the petition as taxpayers.

Judge John D. Humphries set June 15 as the hearing date, at which time the highway board must show cause why the petition should not be granted.

It was charged that the type of paving contemplated, a macadam base, prime coat and single asphalt application, would be totally inadequate to bear the heavy traffic on the road for any appreciable length of time.

Wanton Waste Charged.

The taxpayers complained that moneys paid in under gasoline tax levies would be wantonly wasted on this type of road, and the court was petitioned to enjoin road authorities from letting such contracts.

Judge Humphries, however, issued a straight order to show cause why the petition should not be granted, declining to sanction a temporary injunction.

While the highway board was not restrained from awarding contracts by court order, counsel for the body said Wednesday night it was agreed to withhold the contemplated awards pending the June 15 hearing on the two suits.

Bids on the contracts were opened Wednesday by state highway officials. It was announced in addition to Mr. Holder, other members of the highway board named defendants in the suit were John H. Phillips, of Louisville, Ga., and Stanley S. Bennett, of Quitman, Ga.

Statesboro-Toombs Road.

The stretch of road in question, which is designated as a federal and state highway, extends from Swainsboro, in Emanuel county, to the Toombs county line and through the two counties.

Petitioners were J. E. Darby and T. B. McElida, both of Toombs county, and John P. Price and John W. Giddens, of Emanuel county.

Attorneys who filed the two petitions were W. M. Lewis and T. N. Brown, of Swainsboro, for Toombs county plaintiffs, and Attorney Brown and the firm of Lankford & Rogers, of Lyons, Ga., appearing for the Emanuel county defendants.

All four plaintiffs described themselves as owners of automobiles, both touring and commercial types, and pleaded their rights as taxpayers to set aside the alleged waste of state funds.

It was set out in the petitions that the asphalt coat type of paving contemplated by the highway board had failed in Houston county, and that this stretch of highway was in need of repair too soon after construction had been completed.

The 30-mile strip for which bids have been asked is surfaced at present with a sand-clay mixture, far more costly, the petition says, than the projected paving.

HEBREW TO BUILD $300,000 TEMPLE ON PEEL PROPERTY

Residence on Peachtree Acquired for $62,000; Greek Church Plans To Buy Present Temple.

Purchase of the old residence of the late Colonel William Lawson Reed, on Peachtree street, by the Hebrew Benevolent congregation, and negotiations for sale of the temple now occupied by that group on the northeast corner of Pryor and Richardson streets to the Greek Orthodox church, revealed plans that have been under way for some time for expansion of religious centers, according to announcement Wednesday by Harold Hirsch, vice president of the temple.

Erection of a new temple, Sunday school and temple center to cost approximately $300,000 is planned by the Hebrew Benevolent congregation, Mr. Hirsch stated. Practically all the funds already have been subscribed by members of the congregation and architect's plans for the religious edifice are expected to be completed by October or November, after which construction is to be undertaken immediately, the vice president said.

Sale Practically Concluded.

Sale of the large religious structure on Peachtree street, which has been used for a temple for many years is said to be practically concluded. Chris Corios, president of the Greek Orthodox church, which holds an option on the corner, declined to comment on the transaction.

While the purchase price paid for the north side tract was reported to be $62,000. The property has a frontage of 200 feet on the east side of Peachtree street, where Spring street terminates, and runs back to a depth of 500 feet. It is improved with the two lots.

Two Balloonists Die When Bolts Strike Big Bags

HEBREW TO BUILD $300,000 TEMPLE ON PEEL PROPERTY

ONLY ONE BALLOON YET UNREPORTED

Rain and Electric Storm Wreaks Havoc With National Race of Giant Gasbags.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 30.—(AP)—Only one of the 14 balloons that started in the national elimination balloon race here today were believed to be in the air tonight, announcement from race headquarters said. Three of the bags were known to have been struck by lightning and one pilot was believed to have been killed. Ten others had been forced down. The dead pilot was Lieutenant Paul Evert, of the army, No. 3, Langley field, Virginia.

Walter Morton, aide on the Goodyear V, was found dead near Youngwood, Pa., tonight, having made a free jump from the balloon when it was believed to have been struck by lightning. Ward T. Van Orman, pilot of the Goodyear V, suffered a fractured left leg in a parachute leap. Both men are from Akron, Ohio.

A heavy rainstorm, accompanied by sharp and frequent lightning, raged in southwestern Pennsylvania, toward which section most of the bags drifted after taking off here. One by one reports arrived that the balloons had encountered difficulty.

The lone bag unreported was the Army Number 1, from Scott Field, Ill. Its pilot was Captain E. W. E. Kepner, with Lieutenant W. O. Eareckson as aide. Race officials said the bag might be down in an isolated section or might still be in the air. Some pilots came down voluntarily when lightning began to play about their craft and others were compelled to seek the ground.

One of the bags, No. 2, was caught in a mine tangle, near East McKeesport, but whether it was No. 1 or No. 2 had not been learned.

In addition to the death of Lieutenant Evert and Morton, another balloonist was reported hurt. He was James E. Cooper, Akron, Ohio, aide to Carl K. Wolman, Akron, Ohio, pilot of the City of Cleveland, entry of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce.

Lieutenant Evert was killed when his craft was struck by lightning at Youngwood, near Greensburg. His aide, Lieutenant U. G. Fint, of Northumberland, Pa., was unhurt.

The City of Cleveland entry also was struck by lightning. Cooper is in a Greensburg hospital suffering from shock and bruises. His pilot, Carl K. Wolman, was not injured.

E. J. Hill, pilot, and A. G. Schlosser, aide, of the Detroit No. 3 were forced down from an altitude of 10,000 feet by lightning. The bag was hurt although Hill said his fingers were frozen.

The Detroit No. 4 also was brought down in the storm. George Hineman, of Gross Isle, Mich., pilot, and E. J. Johnson, of the same place, aide, were unhurt.

The Pittsburgh, entered by the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, was reported down at Trafford City and one of the navy balloons was said to have landed at Banning, near Conneville.

WOMEN TO PROBE WARFARE AT CLUB

Appointment of a committee from the Atlanta Civic Council of Women to investigate the election dispute at the Atlanta Women's club, coupled with a decision by Mrs. L. D. T. Quibby not to bring legal action against Mrs. Stafford Seidell for her affidavit at the recent injunction hearing, Wednesday reached the legal battle waged in Fulton superior court over the eligibility of opposing claimants for the women's club leadership.

Holding that factional strife at the women's club threatens to embroil other feminine organizations of the city, the monthly meeting of the council, convening Wednesday at the city hall, deplored the eventuality that blinded a few women to the cause of righteousness.

Officers of the women's council Wednesday declined to reveal the personnel of the investigating committee, pleading an aversion for publicity, but expressing the hope that this body might be able to "reconcile" the warring club factions.

Meanwhile, the women's club presidential contest between Mrs. John R. Hornady and Mrs. Charles Goodman rests for a decision with Judge John D. Humphrey, of Fulton superior court, who heard both sides Monday and Tuesday, taking the case for an early verdict, he announced from the bench.

In commenting on the situation Wednesday, the resolution adopted by the women's council says that "powerful outside organizations are seeking to corrupt Atlanta clubs for women, sounding the warning that 'we do not have to live in the jungle to run across the man-eating tiger'."

During Wednesday, Mrs. Quibby, supporter of the Hornady candidacy, decided not to press her contemplated libel suit against Mrs. Seidell, who signed a deposition stating Mrs. Quibby, Mrs. George O'Neal and Mrs. A. T. Treadwell as "trouble makers."

In every organization they belong to. The affidavit was read by counsel for Mrs. Hornady at the recent hearing, causing a flurry of indignation among the women named.

Called On Injunction.
The hearing was called on a temporary injunction granted the Goodman faction, and prohibiting Mrs. Hornady from interfering with the leadership of the former. A judicial decision is expected in several days.

In the resolution adopted by the women's council this organization was described as a representative body composed of members of virtually every important woman's club in the city.

The paper goes on to recite that "disturbances have divided the thought and purpose of representative club leaders in our midst, women who in the past had a common purpose and thought for the uplift of humanity."

In view of this state of affairs, the resolution commends leaders of the Atlanta Women's club and the Atlanta chapter, U. D. C., for "a courageous stand against an invasion of the sacred realm of women's work."

Officers of the Atlanta Civic Council of Women are Mrs. J. E. Andrews, president; Mrs. Marvin Williams and Miss Carolyn Rosborough, vice presidents; Mrs. Frank Smith, recording secretary; and Mrs. B. G. Ottwell, treasurer.

Inspired Capitol Rat Routs Pair of Felines

NOTED MOUSERS NO MATCH FOR FIERCE RODENT
BY PAUL STEVENSON.

They say a rabbit sometimes will spit in a bulldog's face. They say the worm will turn. Sometimes a tail-end ball team goes on a rampage and licks the peanut winners. Which leads up to the statement that a rat chased two cats clear out of one of the offices at the state capital Wednesday.

Filled with an inspired courage, a meek and lowly sometimes will turn and smack the sassy face of the oppressor. That a rat, usually a craven creature, would turn and smite his instinctive foe is unusual. That such a thing should happen in the staid and dignified halls of the center of the state's governmental machinery lends to the incident an official touch which makes it all the more striking.

Witnessed by Girls.

Two girl members of the chief clerk's staff are authorities for the statement that this rat actually "rode on its hind legs" and smote one cat and then it turned tail and ran. It was then turned ferociously on the other cat, bit its ear and then ran, chased him up on top of a table, Miss Caroline Moore and Miss Marion Scott are the authorities.

ments. Mr. Therrill led the flight in the board of education for the structure.

A large new swimming pool and a new clubhouse have just been completed at Stonewall park and will be within a stone's throw of the new building.

In delivering the feature address, Mr. Therrill told of the rise of Mr. Stanton until his fame spread throughout the four corners of the globe. He praised his unique style of literary genius and the wit, rhythm and humor of Mr. Stanton's verse.

Tribute to Poet.
"Frank L. Stanton's name is indelibly written on the literary pages of history and time can not erase it," Mr. Therrill said. "He was a man who never thought of himself, but always of his work, laboring tirelessly and long to produce the lines which made him world famous."

"I think now would be a good time to begin formation of a Frank L. Stanton Memorial association to purchase the home of Georgia's most beloved poet. If we delay many years, hundreds of relics and personal belongings will be lost."

George W. Powell, president of the Atlanta board of education, declared the city should consider in making the Stanton school a mecca for tourists who visit Atlanta.

reunited country, I call for a showdown between the south and the west in sending a southern man to the white house.

"I would like to know, anyhow, what there is in common between the many Hall in New York or the Iroquois club, of Chicago, and the great God-fearing masses of Kansas and Georgia? Kansas has proven on more than one occasion that she can put conscience and character and her concept of the safety of America above the usual coercion of party mandates, and Georgia—indeed, the whole south—seems likely to prove in the future a glorious and inspiring independence of 'brass rails' and 'brass collar' politics."

"Why not begin this formidable alliance between the Anglo Saxon and thoroughly American south and west by letting Kansas help to elect a

BURNS TO DEATH IN PLANE CRASH

Douglas, Ariz., May 30.—(AP)—Captain R. W. Baucum, of the army aviation corps and commander of a squadron of three planes en route from San Antonio to March field, California, was burned to death this morning as he made a forced landing four miles northwest of Douglas.

A companion, Second Lieutenant Henry Huebnermann, of the eighth cavalry, Fort Sam Houston, was thrown from the plane just before it hit the ground and escaped with injuries that were not expected to prove fatal.

As the airplane struck the ground it was overturned by a rough obstruction, the gas tank exploding and setting fire to the machine.

Captain Baucum was caught in the blaze before he could free himself from a life belt.

for the night. They will resume deliberation this morning.

Defense Attorney Len B. Guillebeau sought to show that the position of Jones when he was found was proof that he had not slain his wife.

On the other hand, County Officer Tom Davis, who with Officer C. Cal Calce investigated, swore Jones declared shortly after his arrest "I killed her, and I am willing to die for it."

Witnesses agreed that Jones had been drinking heavily, and defense counsel brought out the fact that he was lying prostrate beneath the body of his wife when found, a raincoat having been tucked about the woman, apparently to shield her from a down-pour falling at that time.

Assistant Solicitors John H. Hudson and Ed A. Stephens represented the state.

Four trappers today left Kings Bay in a northeasterly direction, hoping to reach Himolop straits across the ice of the interior.

The Gitta di Milano's commander issued an emphatic denial that he had received any messages whatsoever, as had been reported.

The conviction was growing tonight that the Italia had met with a catastrophe, that her wireless had been destroyed and that the crew is in danger.

NORWAY RESENTS ITALIAN ATTITUDE

Oslo, May 30.—(United News).—The Norwegian cabinet decided tonight to instruct Captain H. Risler-Larsen, noted explorer, to fly immediately to Tromsø and take steamers from there for Kings Bay to begin search for the missing dirigible, Italia. The government had delayed action pending a request for aid from Rome, but finally reached the conclusion a relief expedition should be started forthwith.

Italy had requested the Norwegian government to postpone sending a relief expedition until their rescue developments. The request was received with astonishment as all preparations had been made for the expedition and Lieutenant Justus Holm had flown to Kings Bay to form a base.

The newspaper, Morgenbladet, interpreted the request as "a refusal of Norway's assistance and an insult to the Norwegian cabinet, which has done its best, after the request of the Italian minister in Oslo."

The paper expressed the opinion Italy did not realize the danger of the Arctic regions and adding that Norway would continue to render assistance whether Italy decided it or not. Ships, airplanes, dog teams and sleds, as well as experienced hunters and trappers, have been made available by the government.

Lamar, Charles Landrum, Frank E. Lowenstein, Carlos Mason, Wilmer L. Moore, E. P. McBurney, Mrs. J. K. Otley, Robert S. Parley, J. Carroll Payne, Mrs. Price Gilbert, J. D. Rhodes, J. P. Stevens, John S. Cohen, Mrs. Albert E. Thornton, Louis H. Moss and Henry C. Heinz.

The first report on the program was made by J. J. Haverly, chairman of the art committee. The other member of this body is Frank E. Lowenstein. Mr. Haverly stated that the museum has acquired a disolving stereopticon, tripod and slide carrier, purchased by the association, and a portrait of the Rev. Houston Woodrough, by Thomas Sully, purchased from the Lucius Perry Hills fund.

The following accession was reported: An etching, "Philadelphia Street," the gift of Mrs. Samuel Inman; a 19-piece collection of reproductions of famous Greek sculpture, the gift of Mrs. J. M. High; a collection of reproductions of armor, the gift of Mrs. High; a donation by Mrs. High to remodel the side porch for the sculpture cases, and a collection of primitive paintings, the gift of Jesse Leifors Strauss. The total estimated value of the accessions is $4,000.

The following suggestions of the art committee were accepted: That exhibitions of portraits be loaned by Atlanta citizens; that there be established among the members an organization entitled the Atlanta Friends of Art, for the purpose of acquiring additional works of art; that at least three exhibition cases be purchased; that services of an expert, probably an artist, be obtained in order that the museum's standard may be raised; and that the director of the museum be made an ex officio member of the committee.

G. F. McKinney, director of the museum, made his report, stressing the large crowds which have visited the museum this past year. Approximately 12,500 visitors attended the museum from May 30, 1927, to May 30, 1928. A total of 6,015 adults and children attended the drawing classes and art exhibits.

J. Carroll Payne, the retiring president, gave a brief retrospect of the accomplishments of the closing year, stressing the various exhibits and the part they have played in the life of Atlanta.

LOOSE SPARK PLUG WIRE SENDS PLANE CRASHING TO EARTH

Reno, Nev., May 30.—(AP)—A loose nut fastening the ignition wire to one of the spark plugs on his Curtiss QX-5 motor caused Leonard Hynton, youthful Reno aviator, to crash into a small field near here today, demolishing the plane.

Hynton, who is but 16 years old, had just taken off from the flying field with Melvin Vaden, a friend, as passenger.

Neither Hynton nor Vaden was hurt seriously.

GIRL, 9 PLUNGES 90 FEET INTO WELL AS BOARDS BREAK

Graniteville, S. C., May 30.—(AP)—A nine-year-old girl was plunged 90 feet to her death here today when the boards of a well she was playing in broke.

The child, Emily Catherine Tebow, daughter of the Rev. O. E. Tebow, pastor of the local Baptist church, with her half sisters and half brother had just been dismissed from school. Emily raced ahead with one of the other children close at her heels. As she struck the boards over her well, they collapsed and she was plunged to the bottom of the shaft. The other child noted the accident just in time to avert plunging in being her half-sister.

ADAIR WARRANTS HERE FOR SERVICE

Bench warrants for the arrest of Frank Adair, Jr., and Evans A. Ewin, officials of the bankrupt Adair Realty and Trust company, issued in Gainesville following their indictment Tuesday on charges of using the mails to defraud, were brought to Atlanta Wednesday and will be served today.

The United States marshal's office in the federal building was closed Wednesday because of the holiday, postponing the recording and serving of the warrants until this morning, it was stated.

The warrants are returnable in Atlanta. Bond of $5,000 on each of the three indictments has been assessed against the defendants, making a total of $15,000 bond which will have to be posted by each of the four. The bench warrants were issued Wednesday by R. C. McClure, deputy clerk of United States district court at Gainesville.

The indictments alleged that the defendants had bond transactions involving $2,875,000 in which they were charged with using the mails to defraud. These involved three hotel projects, the Thomas Jefferson hotel at Birmingham, to be built by the Union Realty corporation, with a bond issue of $1,200,000; the Young Hotel company, Little Rock, $725,000 in bonds, and the Tennessee Hotel, Inc., of Knoxville, bond issue, $950,000.

It was charged in the true bills that when the Adair Realty and Trust company offered these bonds for sale it was insolvent and the firm intended that the money derived from the sale of these bonds would be "converted" to the benefit of the Adair Realty and Trust company and the four defendants.

BOARD TO OPEN BIDS ON $3,000,000 PAVING

Contracts for road construction work and road grading aggregating more than $3,000,000 will be let by the state highway board at 11 o'clock this morning at the offices of the board at East Point, it was announced Wednesday by John N. Holder, chairman.

When the contracts to be awarded today are completed between now and January 1, the work of finishing a hard-surfaced road from Chattanooga to the Georgia-Florida line by way of Atlanta and Macon will be ended, according to Chairman Holder. Part of this highway, from Marietta to Perry, is now paved and other parts are to be paved during the year.

Chairman Holder said the contracts also call for paving important links on the Macon-Savannah route.

Several bridges are included in the list of projects to be awarded Wednesday. Advertisements for bids on the projects were published several weeks ago.

TEW AND MORRIS IMPROVE RAPIDLY; RETURN TO HOMES

H. C. Tew, automobile mechanic, and W. C. Morris, deputy sheriff, who have been in Grady hospital suffering from wounds received in a gun battle eleven days ago, Wednesday were released from the hospital and allowed to return home. Both Morris and Tew were in a critical condition for several days following the shooting, but improvement the last few days has been rapid, it was said.

FIRST '28 PEACHES SPEED NORTHWARD

Georgia's first two carloads of peaches for the eastern markets were shipped Wednesday from Fort Valley and Byron respectively, bound for New York markets, it was announced in Atlanta at the office of the general freight agent of the Georgia railroad.

The two cars left the peach belt for Macon over the Central of Georgia railroad, the Atlantic Coast Line, the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and the Pennsylvania railroads.

One car from Fort Valley was shipped by R. L. Marchman and the other car was shipped from Byron by J. E. Grace, both prominent peach growers. The peaches were of the "Mayflower" variety.

Atlanta received its first crate of peaches last week in a shipment received from Reynolds, Ga., to Green & Milam, local produce dealers.

FIRST PEACHES SENT ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Macon, Ga., May 30.—(AP)—The first carloads of Georgia peaches to be shipped from the peach belt this season, left here on a special train tonight for New York city, it was announced by W. E. Stewart, assistant general freight agent of the Central of Georgia railway system under whose direction the shipments were made.

One car came from Byron in the afternoon, reaching here about 6 o'clock when it was re-loaded and made ready for shipment with the other car which came from Fort Valley at 8:45 o'clock.

Every effort will be made to get the fruit to New York in time for the Saturday market. The route has been laid over the shortest line to New York, that is through Augusta, Rich-

SOLDIERS' FAMILIES AIDED BY RED CROSS

Families of 233 former soldiers who have felt the pinch of poverty, misfortune and need were under care of the Atlanta chapter of the American Red Cross in April, according to report of Miss Ruth Sheafe, its director, to the Community Chest, in connection with which it operates.

In the scheme of service of the Community Chest, with each of its 37 agencies assigned to a definite field of helplessness to prevent over-lapping and waste, the Atlanta chapter of the Red Cross is assigned to the care of families of unfortunate ex-soldiers, but in addition it has operated with effectiveness in April departments of home hygiene and care of the sick, production of supplies for the sick, layettes for expectant mothers, first aid, and the Junior Red Cross.

The DeKalb chapter of the Red Cross, another chest agency, reported through Miss Claire Hancock, director, of having cared for 112 families in April. General welfare and relief of ex-soldiers, in addition to help for families of former service men, is the function of this agency, which operates in towns and rural districts of DeKalb county and which gives thus a broad field of contacts for the Community Chest.

ATLANTA ZIONISTS TO SEND DELEGATES TO NATIONAL BODY

The local Zionist organization will elect delegates to the national convention at a special meeting called by Louis Isaacson, president, for Monday night in Ahavath Achim synagogue, it was announced Wednesday.

Two members will represent the Atlanta district at the annual convention of Zionists in Pittsburgh, June 29 to July 4. Preparations are being made to have an open discussion on the problems that will confront the gathering of the Zionist organization of America this year, with the possibility of instructing the delegates in the policies to be favored by the Atlanta district, Mr. Isaacson stated.

Carrier Pigeon Visitor To Capt. Hope's Home Released, Heads North

The carrier pigeon which fluttered exhausted into the home of Captain George M. Hope, of the Fulton county commission, ten days ago, was released Tuesday after being conditioned for the flight home, Captain Hope said Wednesday.

The name of the pigeon's owner was not known the only identification on the bird being a red tag with the number "13" in black figures and an aluminum tag on one leg. After circling for direction, the pigeon headed due north, Captain Hope said. The pigeon was kept at Captain Hope's home, 2240 Peachtree road, for ten days in the hope the owner would communicate.

Atlanta Only City in Sixth District Showing Increase In Department Store Sales

Trade Conditions Good, Review Shows; Reserve Bank Rediscount Now 4-1-2 Per Cent.

Atlanta was the only city in the sixth federal reserve district showing an increase in net retail department store sales during April of this year over the previous April, according to the monthly business review released Wednesday by the Federal Reserve bank. In addition, Atlanta recorded the greatest gain in net department store sales for January 1 to April 30, over the same period of last year.

Atlanta's retail trade at five reporting department stores gained 5.6 per cent April of this year over the previous April, the review shows. New Orleans and other cities in the district showed decreases ranging from 0.2 per cent for Birmingham to 13.1 per cent for New Orleans. The district as a whole showed a decline of 5.6 per cent. The figures for the January 1 to April 30 period show that Atlanta gained 16.8 per cent, Birmingham gained 8.0 per cent, Chattanooga lost 3.5 per cent, Nashville lost 4.4 per cent, and New Orleans lost 4.4 per cent.

High Stock Turnover. The figures also show that Atlanta, although declining from April of last year, showed a higher rate of stock turned over than any other city in the district for April, and also for the January 1 to April 30 period. Discounts of member banks in principal cities of the district were slightly greater on May 9 than four weeks earlier or a year ago, and discounts for member banks by the Federal Reserve bank increased about $15,000,000 during the four weeks' period, the review shows.

The rediscount rate of the Atlanta Federal Reserve bank was fixed at four and a half per cent by the board of directors on May 25, the rediscount rate being the rate of interest charged by reserve banks on loans to their member banks. Each federal reserve bank fixes its own rediscount rate independently of the other reserve banks, factors which enter into the fixing of the rate being: business conditions, demand for money and credit conditions in the district. The rate in this district has nothing to do with the rate in other districts, and vice versa, though it happens that New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Richmond, Cleveland, St. Louis, Dallas and Minneapolis reserve banks have the same rate as the Atlanta bank, four and a half per cent.

Savings deposits held by reporting banks in the district at the end of April were 4.2 per cent greater than at the same time a year ago, and deposits to individual accounts during April were 5.5 per cent less than in April of 1927, the review shows. Commercial failures in April were less than half the high totals for March and February.

ACTRESS IN ENGLAND WILL MARRY LORD

London, May 30.—(AP)—The Evening Standard understands that Gladys Cooper, the actress, whose name is a household word for the typically English style of beauty, will shortly be married to Sir Nevill Pearson. The paper says that the marriage will take place early next month.

Acclaimed recently in Miami as the "greatest singing organization in Shrineland," the Yaarab Chanters, famous Shrine musical organization of Yaarab temple, will appear in concert at 8:30 o'clock tonight at the Atlanta Woman's Club auditorium.

The concert is being sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary, and proceeds will go toward the women's work in connection with hospital No. 48, it is announced.

Feature soloists will be Lucy McDermid and Floyd Jennings. Fra Cundell is director of the chanters and accompanists will be Walter Aichel, LeRoy Petty and Forest Traylor.

AIR MAIL REACHES ATLANTA BY TRAIN

Southbound air mail, transferred to a train when the air mail plane was forced down by a clogged oil line early Wednesday morning north of Greensboro, N. C., arrived in Atlanta at 4:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by train. The mail plane did not leave for New York or arrive from New Orleans Wednesday night because of the legal holiday. The regular schedule will be resumed today.

FAREWELL DINNER GIVEN TO JUDKINS BY R. W. WOODRUFF

Robert W. Woodruff, president of the Coca-Cola company, was host at a dinner given at the Capital City club Tuesday night in honor of Holland Judkins, who has been manager of the Baltimore hotel since it opened. Mr. Judkins recently resigned his position as executive assistant to John Bowman, of the Bowman hotels system, and will leave soon for New York to take up his new duties.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS END SESSION TODAY

The closing session of the state funeral directors' convention in the Henry Grady hotel will start at 10:30 o'clock this morning with President J. D. Moore presiding. Features will be an address by Rev. N. R. High Moor, pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal church, and a talk on embalming by Professor Esteban, of Philadelphia. Several committee reports and reports of delegates to the last national convention will be presented. The meeting is expected to close about noon.

Business and pleasure were combined in Wednesday's program. The business session was held at the Henry Grady hotel in the morning, addresses being given by E. R. Black, governor of the Federal Reserve bank here; Dr. C. M. Anderson, of Springfield, Ohio, and Dr. C. R. Lane. In the afternoon the delegates journeyed to Stone Mountain, where they were the guests of a local casket company at a barbecue after which they returned to Idlewood to a dance.

It is understood that efforts will be made to bring the national convention to Atlanta in 1930 and that the Georgia delegation to the national meet at Kansas City this summer will be instructed to present the invitation of Atlanta at that time.

W. T. YAWN DIES OF HEART ATTACK

McRae, Ga., May 30.—(AP)—W. T. Yawn, farmer, was found dead in bed here this morning. Heart failure was given as the cause of his death. He leaves a widow and several children, among whom is Mrs. Mary Lee Parker, prominent in state Baptist Sunday school circles, and Dr. B. W. Yawn, of Eastman, Ga.

NICARAGUAN REBEL AGREES TO BE GOOD

Managua, Nicaragua, May 30.—(AP)—Cornelius Sandoval, an outlaw, has voluntarily surrendered to Colonel Robert C. Dunlap, commanding the 11th regiment of marines. Sandoval was in a group operating under Anastacio Hernandez, who was captured recently and is now in the penitentiary at Managua.

The American Commander apparently communicated with Sandoval through a third party and guaranteed immunity if the outlaw turned his arms over to the marines and agreed to return to peaceful pursuits. Sandoval turned over four rifles and 19 rounds of ammunition.

This is regarded as having established a precedent for those tired of outlaws but who have feared the vengeance of the marines if they should return to former occupations.

CONVICTED FIGHTER NOT 'SPIDER BRITT'

T. M. Paschal, alias Jack Paschal, who has been erroneously referred to as "Spider Britt," former Atlanta lightweight, Wednesday was transferred from the tower to Fulton county jail, beginning a four-year sentence given him when he pleaded guilty in Fulton superior court to three counts of forgery and a fourth of larceny after trust.

While T. M. Paschal formerly fought in local rings, winning a large following here, he never used the name of "Spider Britt," according to the latter's brother, J. A. Paschal, of Atlanta, who says "Spider" is now living in Charlotte, N. C.

At T. M. Paschal's hearing in superior court, both defense and prosecuting attorneys referred to him as "Spider Britt," and it was through this designation that the mistaken identity arose.

MARIETTA OBSERVES DAY OF DECORATION

Marietta, Ga., May 30.—(AP)—Soldiers of the United States army who were killed in the battle around Atlanta during the civil war were remembered here today when their graves in the National cemetery here were decorated with flowers.

The Grand Army of the Republic, United Confederate Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Spanish-American War, the American Legion, and units of the regular army participated in the parade, which preceded the exercises in the cemetery.

Troops from Fort McPherson and the band of the 22d infantry took part and Brigadier General Abraham G. Lott, of Fort McPherson, was marshal of ceremonies.

Special interurban trains from Atlanta through visitors to the city for the day's program.

Patriotic airs, and an address by Frank R. Kempton, commander of the Atlanta post of the American Legion, completed the program.

Georgia Smith Family During 1927 Added 1,117 To State's Population

The Smiths are maintaining their lead in the census figures for Georgia, as figures compiled by the state bureau of vital statistics revealed Wednesday that there were more babies born in the Smith family in 1927 than in any family of any other name. To be explicit there were 1,117 young Smiths added to the total Smiths in 1927.

The Williams are running next to the Smiths, the total new population running to 988 Williams. Johnsons are third with 826 new members.

In 1927, 61,636 births were registered. The Smiths registered 1.5 per cent of the total.

Bryan's Daughters Plan To Operate Father's College

The Bryna Business college, founded by Professor Thomas L. Bryan, who died suddenly last week, will be continued in operation under the management of his daughters, Mrs. Kein Bryan Barnes and Mrs. Tompkins Bryan Young, it was announced Wednesday. The college is located at 71-73 Forsyth street.

Professor Bryan was one of the best known educators in the south, having operated a business college in Atlanta for nearly 30 years and prior to that time having headed several large colleges for women located in various cities in the south. He was the inventor of several methods of teaching business courses and these methods will be followed by his daughters who have been associated with him in his work for many years.

It was stated that the same staff conducting the college will be retained. Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Young are members of this staff and are teachers of wide experience in this line of work.

MOB THAT TOOK NEGRO LATER RELEASES HIM

Gainesville, Ga., May 30.—(AP)—Henry Hood, negro, abducted from jail here May 14 by a mob, was not touched, the commission on interracial cooperation announced today.

The commission's statement said that careful investigation of the Hood case by their representative had revealed that Hood was released by the mob, returned to his home here unharmed and later left for a distant city.

Hood had been confined in jail after an altercation with a white man and was taken from the lockup at 2 o'clock in the morning when all officers of the night police force were absent from their beat, the commission said. As a result, the commission said, the night chief of police was dismissed from office on charges of inefficiency.

Hood's relatives told the commission's investigator that one section of the mob wished to handle him roughly, but that the other faction insisted upon his release.

Men Taxed.

Mobile, Ala., May 30.—(United News).—Every physically sound Mobile man between the ages of 21 and 60 must pay a tax of $5 a year for maintenance and construction of streets. The new ordinance, which goes into effect July 1, exempts women.

CENTRAL DENIED RIGHT TO DISCONTINUE TRAINS

The state public service commission Wednesday denied a petition filed by the Central Georgia railroad asking authority to discontinue trains Nos. 21 and 22 between Macon and Milledgeville, Strong protests against the petition was presented at a hearing before the commission Wednesday by people who live in the territory served by the trains. The commission allowed the railroad authority to discontinue these trains between Macon and Milledgeville but required the continued operation between Tonnelle and Macon.

Authority was granted the Atlanta, Birmingham and Coast railroad to discontinue trains Nos. 5, 6, 7 and 8 between Brunswick and Tallahassee. The service given by these trains will be rendered in the future by the Coastal Transport company, a motor bus line operating at Brunswick.

Chairman James A. Percy announced also that the commission had denied a petition filed by the Atlantic Coast Line railway seeking authority to discontinue its agency station at Oakes, Ga.

The Wrightsville and Tonnelle railroad was authorized to discontinue trains Nos. 2 and 3 between Dublin and Hawkinsville. The American Railway Express company was authorized to discontinue its agency at Pine Park, Ga.

ROOSEVELT CAMP NAMES DELEGATES TO AMERICUS MEET

Theodore Roosevelt camp No. 8, department of Georgia, United Spanish War Veterans, elected delegates and alternates to the state encampment to be held July 6 and 7 at Americus, at a meeting recently held here.

Those elected are Judge Max E. Land, Julius S. Ward and F. K. Mead, delegates; W. J. Waldrip, George H. Fry and John F. Jeffers, alternates. In addition to delegates and alternates, camp No. 8 will be represented by Ralph Stieckel, senior department vice commander; Lee J. Stein, department color sergeant; Robert Robinson, past post commander; A. C. Bellamy, past department commander of Hawaii; James Shuttleworth, past post commander; Charles A. Wright, camp commander; Edward J. Poutren, senior vice commander; and G. K. Vaseu, junior commander.

ATLANTA WOMAN'S DAUGHTER KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Helen Marshall Driskell, wife of the Rev. E. P. Driskell, of Buchanan, Ga., was instantly killed Tuesday night when an automobile in which she was riding with her husband and daughter turned over on the Bowden-Carroll road. It was learned here Wednesday. Burial of the steering gear was held responsible for the accident.

Mrs. Driskell is survived by her husband, daughter Dorothy, 7, and her mother, Mrs. M. C. Marshall, of 409 Whitford avenue, Atlanta. Mrs. Driskell taught school in Atlanta for several years before her marriage.

Dr. Driskell and Dorothy Driskell were not injured in the wreck. Mrs. Driskell was thrown out of the car and died instantly from her injuries. The body was brought to Atlanta. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by H. M. Patterson & Son.

Experiment Station Heads To Study European Farming

Leading officials and workers of the southern experiment stations and colleges will leave early in July for a six weeks' tour of France, Belgium, Germany and Switzerland to study soil improvement, cropping systems, fertilization, live stock production and forestry, it was announced Wednesday by J. N. Harper, director of the agricultural and scientific bureau of the N. Y. Potash Export Co., New York and Atlanta.

The party has been organized by Mr. Harper, and the passports have already been applied for.

In Europe travel will be largely by automobile so that an intimate view may be had of agricultural crops and farm practices. Some of the noted experiment stations and colleges will be visited.

In planning the tour Mr. Harper has provided for a visit to the potash mines of Germany and France.

While the tour is primarily for the study of soil improvement, cropping systems, fertilization, livestock production and forestry, opportunity will be provided for seeing some of the historic and scenic points of interest in Europe. It will take about six weeks from the time the party leaves New York until it reaches New York in return.

Among those who will make the trip are: J. Phil Campbell, director extension service, Georgia State College of Agriculture; M. P. Davis, had animal husbandry division, Georgia State College of Agriculture; H. P. Stuckey, director Georgia experiment station; E. C. Westbrook, farm management specialist, Georgia State College of Agriculture; John S. Carroll, agricultural and scientific bureau, N. Y. Potash Export Co., and J. N. Harper.

ammonium, the work of removing the phosgene gas supplies at the Stollenberg warehouse to the depot of the ocean was expected to begin today. It was from the Stollenberg works that the phosgene which recently spread death in Hamburg escaped.

The destruction of the gas still on hand in tanks and steel containers will require three days with the help of 100 pioneers detailed by the Reichwehr.

The containers will be shipped by lighters to a steamer where the gas will be discharged into the air cavity of old torpedoes and ten blown into the north sea through exhaust valves.

73 SEAT CONTESTS FOR G. O. P. MEETING

Washington, May 30.—(AP)—Contests affecting 73 seats in the Kansas City convention have been recognized by the republican national committee, with the probability that those involving six will not be pressed. The committee has been called to meet in Kansas City next Monday, eight days before the start of the convention, to pass on the disputes which in all but one case, Porto Rico, have arisen in southern states. Former Senator Pepper, retiring national committeeman from Pennsylvania, is in charge of the hearings, and it is expected that the contest involving the entire delegation from Texas, which is being contested by C. C. Littleton, of Fort Worth, and Representative Quarbach, of San Antonio, the only Texas republican in either house of congress.

Just what effect settlement of the contests will have on the convention line-up when ballots for a presidential nominee gets going remains to be seen. In most instances one set of the contestants are avowedly for Hoover, and in some cases have been included in the claims of Hoover managers as to delegate strength. A number of the contesting delegates have indicated leanings toward Lowden, or Daves.

Effect on Nomination. In Mississippi Howard is looked on as a Hoover supporter, the Sholdon-Gordon faction as potential Lowden support. The Kuntz slate of delegates in Louisiana has been instructed for Hoover, while the contesting group from that state is understood to favor Lowden, whose managers also believe the Wurdach delegates from Texas, if seated, would vote for the former Illinois governor. "Creeger's" delegates are instructed for Hoover, and Church, in Memphis, is one of the 19 delegates from Tennessee.

Word has been received, however, that the slate of four delegates at large from South Carolina, arrayed against "Joe" Tolbert, republican national committeeman, will not be presented for recognition, and it is expected that the contest involving the two Tennessee seats allotted to the third Tennessee district also will drop by the way. Factional differences have been adjusted.

As it stands now, the national committee, which is expected to meet Monday, will bump into its first task of refereeing when Florida is reached on the roll call of states. George W. Bean, national committeeman, whose rule has been challenged frequently of late, heads one slate of delegates which is understood, while Glen R. Skipper, of Miami, a Hoover adherent, is the guiding spirit in the opposition group. All the Florida seats except that from the third district are in dispute.

Georgia, one of the fertile spots for the development of republican delegates, has only three seats in this year, all of them the outgrowth of rows between district leaders. The seats from the first, fifth and seventh districts are the ones over which a fight is being made.

Kentucky will furnish the only three-seated contest. It comes from the first district, which has two delegates, and three groups are seeking convention recognition.

In Louisiana, where all 12 delegates are contested, Emile Kuntz, national committeeman, is in one camp, and Walter L. Cohen, negro controller of customs at New Orleans, in the other.

Two Mississippi States. In Mississippi, which will be another dozen-delegate state in the convention, Perry W. Howard, negro national committeeman, heads one slate, with the "city white" opposition group including former Governor Sheldon, of Nebraska, and Charles U. Gordon, one time postmaster of Chicago, both now residents of Mississippi.

In the tenth district "Bob" Church, wealthy Memphis negro who is recognized as a political power, has a fight on his hands. He wants to sit in the

BRUTAL SLAYING OF GIRL ADMITTED

Toledo, Ohio, May 30.—(AP)—Charles J. Hoppe, 26, a Toledo taxi driver, with a wife and 1-year-old child, confessed to police today that he had kidnapped 7-year-old Dorothy Sielagowski from her home and slew her early Tuesday morning. He was inflamed with drink which he obtained at the wedding of a neighbor and was unable to assign any reason for the killing, according to his signed statement.

Suspicion attached to the taxi driver because he and his wife formerly roomed at the home of Alex Sielagowski, the father of the slain girl, and because he fitted the description which police compiled of the "man dressed in black with a missing front tooth."

Suit Found Buried. Early this afternoon detectives recovered from a freshly dug hole in the rear of the man's home the dark suit and shirt which he wore when he strangled the little girl to death. The clothing was marked with blood stains.

Confronted with this apparel and with a plaster cast of his own teeth which fitted exactly into the teeth marks he made on the body of the young victim, Hoppe confessed after a lengthy grilling.

Hoppe's recollection of the killing was vague. He knew that he had died in the automobile in which he carried her away but he could not remember the spot where he attacked and strangled the girl.

Three Body on Porch. He recalled hazily of driving back to the house of the Sielagowskis, where he threw the body upon the front porch. He remembered then going home to sleep.

Hoppe had remained away from work Monday night to go to the wedding of a neighbor, but he became so intoxicated that his wife, a cousin of Dorothy, was forced to go home without him.

Hoppe's statement said that he went to the home of Stanley Sielagowski, an uncle of Dorothy, and took his automobile from the garage. Reaching the Sielagowski plant, the car ran out of gasoline.

He stole another from a parking place. Then he drove to the Sielagowski home, forced open a screen door, searched the house for liquor and went upstairs. He stumbled into the bedroom where Dorothy was sleeping with her three sisters and was seized with an impulse to carry her away, his statement said.

Hoppe's wife suspected that something was wrong when he returned about 4:30 a. m. with bloodstained clothing, but he told her he had been fighting.

Hoppe will be arraigned tomorrow morning on charges of first degree murder and will be held to the county grand jury without bond.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE
AWARDS DIPLOMAS TO FIVE ATLANTANS

Davidson, N. C., May 30.—(Special)—At graduation exercises held on the Davidson college campus today five Atlantans were among those awarded degrees.

These men, Boyce Martin, T. E. McGee, Julian Lake, P. J. Garrison and Robert S. Lowrance, Jr., have distinguished themselves during their undergraduate careers in various fields of student activity. Martin was an intercollegiate golfer and student editor, McGee an outstanding football and baseball star, Lake was prominent in Y. M. C. A. work, Garrison was known as intercollegiate wrestler and student writer, while Lowrance was perhaps best known through his work in the college R. O. T. C., but also was identified with many musical organizations.

Economies Planned
In Cuban War and Navy Departments

Havana, May 30.—(AP)—Whatever it is to be made in Cuban government expenditures in order to meet with President Machado's program of strict economy will be made in the war and navy department and not by decreasing wages of government employees.

It is held that there are numerous unnecessary departments in the national army and navy costing considerable money and that these could be abolished without harm and with a saving commensurate to that obtainable by general wage slashing in all departments.

Requests for further decreased budgeting for the fiscal year made recently by the treasury department have met with almost immediate retrenchment in all departmental offices.

Sweeten the stomach—instantly

About two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomach. It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drug store.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company, since 1875. (Advt.)

LAST WEEK OPENS IN PRIMARY FIGHT

BY HERMAN D. HANCOCK.
Verbal barages were rained on voters at three political rallies Wednesday night by aspirants for the 33 positions to be filled next Wednesday in the city democratic primary.

Every one of the 17 aspirants for city-wide positions and the 13 in the ward contests claimed victory as the last week of the drive for ballots opened.

The chief of construction's race in which William A. Hansell, incumbent, is opposed by his former first assistant, Charles Donahoe, continued to hold major interest, causing a clash at the Crew Street school in the second ward between the principals.

Three Meetings Held. Another meeting was held at the Formwalt school sponsored by friends of Mr. Hansell and the third at the Sylvan Hills club in the tenth ward which was sponsored by friends of W. Garland Cooper, candidate for reelection as councilman from the first ward.

He also declared tax books "indicate Mr. Hansell is a pauper but he is giving hundreds of dollars to churches and other organizations to beat me."

A tilt occurred between Alderman W. Guy Dobbs, of the seventh ward, a candidate for reelection, and Holmes Joyner, when Mr. Dobbs attempted to correct Mr. Joyner with the campaign of W. C. Jenkins, his opponent.

Mr. Dobbs denied that he is interested in money. This is untrue, his own said and that he made this statement because of a rumor which had been circulated that he is supporting Chief Hansell.

Mr. Joyner took the floor and charged that B. J. Baxter, manager of the city garage, is helping him to a campaign fund was circulated during the speaking.

Meetings Tonight. Meetings tonight are slated at the home of the Rev. Dr. W. M. Albert, pastor of the Western Heights Baptist church, at Stanton school and at Bessie Brauhm park.

The rally at Dr. Albert's home, 479 Simpson street, will be in the form of a chicken dinner, served under auspices of circle No. 2, Woman's Missionary society. The dinner will be served from 5 o'clock to the afternoon until 9 o'clock at night. Candidates will begin speaking at 7:30 o'clock.

Two rallies are slated for Friday night, one at the Adair Street school, under auspices of the Adair Civic society, and another at the English Avenue school, under sponsorship of friends of James E. Bowden, candidate for council from the tenth ward, who is opposed by Tom Morris.

All candidates have been invited to all the rallies.

Organization of a "Pat Hendricks Club" marked a meeting held Wednesday night at 325 Grant street. E. N. Hendricks was named chairman. Bapts have Jenkins secretary. Several persons made enthusiastic speeches, in which they predicted the election of Mr. Hendricks as city electrician. Mr. Hendricks is offering against R. C. Turner, incumbent.

MAN CALLS WIFE AND SON TO SEE HIM SHOOT SELF

Griffin, Ga., May 30.—(Special). J. H. Latta, well-known farmer of near Griffin, from the back porch of his house today called on "Come in if you want to see me kill myself."

Before his wife and his oldest son, Ewell, could get to him he had put a pistol to his right temple and blown his brains out. Death was instantaneous.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide. Relatives testified at the coroner's inquest that he had been in bad health and had repeatedly threatened to take his life: one time his wife took his pistol away from him and hid it.

SENATE FUND QUIZ TO CONTINUE WORK

Washington, May 30.—(AP)—In order to fully cover the wide area it has plotted in its investigation of expenditures in the presidential campaign, the senate inquiry committee will branch out Friday in two directions.

Two members will go to Cincinnati tomorrow night and two others will leave for New York city. Still another subcommittee may go into Indiana to look more deeply into the campaign of Senator Watson, republican of that state, but final decision was deferred today.

The Ohio inquiry will concern expenditures on behalf of Herbert Hoover and those for the late Senator Willis, his opponent. Excursions to Ohio cities other than Cincinnati will depend on information received from witnesses. The New York trip again will concern the Governor Smith campaign.

Before the senate inquiries decided on their plans the special house subcommittee may go into Missouri, yesterday to cover the same ground held an organization meeting but indicated that it would take no definite action until after the Kansas City republican convention.

The senate committee will hold two sessions today and tomorrow, hearing the morning Representative Snell, republican, New York, and in the afternoon Senator Heflin, democrat, Alabama. Snell is understood by Chairman Steiwer, of the committee, to have information which the inquirers should have before going to New York. Heflin has opposed the Smith candidacy.

The resolution of Senator Blease, democrat, South Carolina, adopted by the senate and directing the committee to inquire into the Hoover food administration, was considered today and the committee decided that that phase could not be gone into at this time.

Senator Steiwer said the matter might have to go over for some time.

The vote was: Smith 28,888; Reed 28,807. Smith had held the lead from the outset, at times being 2,000 ahead.

Returns from 982 precincts in the race for the republican presidential preference gave Senator Goff 56,503; Secretary Hoover 54,422.

Returns from 902 precincts out of 2,306 in yesterday's primary gave for U. S. senator, republican: Gore 37,519; Hatfield 61,922; Rosenbloom 18,736.

DRY AGENTS SEIZE
G. O. P. MEET LIQUOR

Birmingham, Ala., May 30.—(AP)—A $10,000 consignment of liquor from Lakeland, Fla., to Kansas City, Mo., was seized here today by federal prohibition agents.

The liquor, which was concealed in 150 drums of 25-gallon capacity, consisted of 100 cases of pint and quart bottles. Fifty of the drums were filled with sand, while the liquor, bundled in sacks, was concealed in the others under the label "phosphate."

Federal officers headed by Acting Deputy Administrator Holland pounced down on the shipment after they had been notified of its arrival here by R. E. Tuttle, dry chief of Savannah, Ga.

The officers said the shipment followed a devious course through Savannah and Montgomery to Birmingham. It was to have been routed to Kansas City this afternoon.

Mr. Holland refused to make known the name of the consignee.

The drums of liquor and sand were packed to the roof in a box car, which had been sidetracked in a railroad yard here, awaiting reassignment to Kansas City.

Summer Term Of Expression Opens At Agnes Scott

The Georgia term of the School of Expression, Boston, will open for registration Saturday morning, June 2, at 10 o'clock. Classes will begin Monday morning, June 4, at 9 o'clock, but it is advisable for all who possibly can to register on Saturday, though registration will be continued at 8 o'clock Monday.

Miss Frances K. Gooch, director of the summer term, announces the following classes in the summer term: Voice and body training leading to pantomime; vocal expression leading to public speaking; platform art and dramatic interpretation. Play production will be one of the big objectives of the whole summer course, and every preparation that the director of plays will need in his equipment will be offered.

Assisting Miss Gooch will be Miss Mary Freeman, of Atlanta; Mrs. Janet Mills Shepherd, of Atlanta; Mrs. P. H. Jeter, of Decatur, and Miss Nan Bagby Stephens, of Atlanta, all of whom are known for their capabilities in their separate fields.

The work of this term has been given credit on the regular term and state certificates of the Atlanta public schools and the state department of education. The term offers 60 hours of instruction, and by special arrangement more credit may be obtained.

Miss Stephens announces that the class for teachers in methods in play writing will hold its first session at Agnes Scott at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, June 4. This is the class which has been granted credit on the salary schedule and state certificates of the Atlanta public schools and state department of education. There will be an evening class in play writing also. This will begin Monday morning, June 4, at 8 o'clock, at Miss Stephens' home at 789 Briarcliff road.

As 'Ambassador of Good Will,' Miss Phillips Goes to Asheville

Asheville, N. C., May 20.—As an ambassador of good will from Georgia, Miss Frances Phillips, of Louisville, chosen through The Atlanta Constitution's contest, sponsor for her state to the Rhododendron festival in Asheville, June 4-6, will be received in North Carolina with all the honors due her mission—to represent Georgia in Asheville's gala celebration of the establishment of a national park in the Great Smoky mountains.

Miss Phillips, with her chaperon, will be the guest during the festival week of Grove Park inn, which will also be the residence at that time of the Rhododendron queen, Miss Rose Corrigan, of Asheville, in whose court she will be a maid of honor, with sponsors from fifteen other states. Among these, Miss Mary Gilder-esse, of Lancaster, S. C.; Miss Louise Hinkle, of Jacksonville, Ala.; Miss Dorothy Holland, of Hot Springs, Ark.; and Miss Helen Andrews, of McAlester, Okla. Others will be the lovely sponsor group resident at the same hotel. These sponsors, like Miss Phillips, have all been commissioned by the governors of their states.

First Event.
The first event in which Miss Phillips will take formal part will be the crowning of the queen and her coronation ball at Grove Park inn on the night of June 4. Bingham McKee, grandson of Colonel Bingham, founder of the famous Bingham Mill school on the French Broad river, will be the queen's consort, and in her court, in addition to the state sponsors, will be maids of honor selected by 35 women's federated organizations in Asheville, all of these to contribute to an elaborate coronation pageant. Each sponsor and maid will select her own cavalier.

A special feature will be the dancing before the queen's coronation, presided over by Lucile Lorraine, late of the Donahew group, who is professional entertainer at the inn and the Asheville Country club. Friday evening, in a pageant of the states and Rhododendron ball, Miss Phillips, with the other sponsors, will appear in a costume symbolic of each one of the official flower of her state. Asheville is secretly hoping that Georgia's representative will vary this arrangement slightly by arraying herself as the justly noted Georgia peach.

At least one other sponsor will take the liberty of departing from the rule of a flower costume. Miss Cora Arch, who was chosen by her people of the "Eastern Band" of Indians who have their reservation in the foot hills of these same Smoky mountains to be celebrated, will wear of the garb of an Indian princess. Miss Arch is an honor student of the Indian school at Cherokee.

Enjoy All Festivities.
Unofficially, Georgia's sponsor will have the opportunity to enjoy all the festivities of the week, beginning with a floral parade on Monday, and in this will be escorted by a representative not only of Asheville, but of a dozen counties and towns of this section. Similarly, the outdoor pageant of the nations in the Memorial stadium Tuesday night will have its episodes furnished by many women of North Carolina, in the community, which as many as a hundred and fifty people in costume will participate.

A mountain folk festival on the public square, and other carnival events will assemble the whole population with visitors from everywhere, and a water carnival, with tennis tournaments, will be other amusements. The festival has mapped and scheduled mountain sports, according to forestry experts, will include 12,000 acres of rhododendron. The members of the national park commission and the Rockefeller foundation, which contributed $5,000,000 to the park project, will be the guests of the city for the festival, resident at Grove Park inn, where Governor and Mrs. A. W. McLean, of North Carolina, and Governor John E. Martin, of Arkansas, will be other distinguished visitors.

Dr. Edward King will be festival chairman for the Georgia society in Asheville. The doctors and dentists, with 50 other organizations are participating in making the festival a success, and the medical profession, assuming the reception and entertainment of visitors, formed state societies which will have headquarters at local hotels and will welcome and guide the tourists. Dr. King's headquarters will be Hotel Vanderbilt.

Polo Game At Fort McPherson Attracts Society

Fort McPherson, May 20.—Wednesday afternoon fashionable Atlanta society as well as the army contingent gathered at the polo field at Fort McPherson to watch the eight chucker conflict between the Fort Bragg team and the Fort squad.

Following polo, an enjoyable tea-dance was given at the Officers club by the Fort McPherson Polo Riding club with Mrs. Robert T. Foster, Mrs. Robert S. Moore and Mrs. H. H. Joffe as official hostesses. The tea table was overlaid with an exquisite buffet lunch, and the polo rose in a low bowl and tall tapers in silver holders were effectively arranged.

Mrs. George P. Hartzell poured coffee and Mrs. J. H. Jarvis poured tea. Mrs. Wesley Moran, Misses Katharine Ripley, Dorothy Tellebs, Lucie Olive Gaines, and Margaret Cusady assisted in serving the guests who included the army group and friends from Atlanta.

Dainty Dancers Will Feature East Lake Dance

Amid a setting of Japanese lanterns, trailing wisteria, and flower boxes, five popular little Atlanta dancers will entertain the guests at the first year dance and formal opening of the East Lake Country club, which will be held Friday evening, June 1, at the club, assembling more than 300 members of Atlanta society. Dancing will be the feature of the evening, with a race from 8 until 2 o'clock.

The dancers, who will be the delightful feature of the entertainment, are Misses Judith and Amylilla Kilham, of Charlotte, are visiting relatives in the city.

Outdistances Large Field To Cop Race

Favorites Are Forced Out or Left Behind in Race as Youth Wins.

PRIZES

Indianapolis, May 30.—(United News.)—Sixty thousand dollars in prize money was divided tonight among winners and participants in the Memorial day race as follows:

First, $20,000; second, $10,000; third, $5,000; fourth, $3,000; fifth, $2,000; sixth, $2,000; seventh, $1,500; eighth, $1,000; ninth, $1,500; tenth, $1,000.

A $10,000 consolation prize is split among drivers who started. It is distributed according to number of laps driven. Each driver automatically received $500 when he qualified.

Won in Last 50.

The race really was won in the last 50 miles when it suddenly developed into a new affair with Meyer, Jimmy Gleason, young Philadelphia race driver, and Tony Gullotta fighting it out for first place. Meyer snatched the lead from Jimmy Gleason on his 40th mile and from then on he stepped on the gas, holding it until the finish. Gullotta, always a dangerous challenger, suffered a stroke of misfortune when within a few miles of the finish his line became clogged on the back stretch and there he was stalled.

Gleason, who led the race for miles and seemed certain to have victory in his grasp, also fell a victim of misfortune in the closing miles of the race when his motor gave him trouble and he was forced to quit.

The trio of favorites, Leon Duray, Los Angeles; Cliff Woodbury, of Chicago, and Cliff Bergere, another Los Angeles entry, wound up in disaster early in the race, the victim of motor trouble. Duray at the outset set the same dizzy pace he showed in his qualifying round and burned up the course as the leader for the first 162 miles.

Bergere was forced out with a broken distributor shaft before speeding 50 miles and Woodbury was declared out on his 15th mile because of a broken timing gear.

Duray Wins $5,800.

Duray found solace in the fact, however, that he had won $5,800 in lap prizes with Gleason picking up $2,000 and Babe Stupp, another one of the earlier challengers, $1,000.

They were rewarded with $100 for each lap of the race they led.

Whitcombe Shoots 69 To Lead Pack

Newcastle, Ireland, May 30.—(United News.)—Ernest Whitcombe scored 69 today in the second round of the Irish open golf championship, giving him 137, and a lead of seven strokes on the field. Whitcombe continued his brilliant play of yesterday when he broke the Royal County Down golf club course record with 68.

Archie Compston also turned in a card of 69 today and is in a tie for second place with a 36-hole score of 144. Abe Mitchell, with 71, today completed an aggregate of 144 with Compston.

Henry Cotton, the young London pro, started out to give sensational performance, but slipped at the close. He played the first four holes in 12 strokes but at 9 at the eighteenth gave him a score of 75 for the day and 148 for the first 28 holes.

The field was reduced tonight by the elimination of all but the low 60. The survivors will play 36 holes tomorrow to decide the championship, now held by George Duncan.

FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD.

MEYER

SOUDERS

Piloting his machine around the track at a speed of 5:01:33.75, Louis Meyer, of California, won the annual international 500-mile auto classic run over the Indianapolis speedway Wednesday.

Meyer is shown at the top. Lou Moore, Hollywood, finished second, and George Souder, winner of last year's race, was third. A crowd of about 150,000 witnessed the race.

Warren Wins.

Greensboro, N. C., May 30.—(United News.)—Addison Warren, North Carolina heavyweight, won a decision over Marty Gallagher, of Washington, in a ten-round bout here tonight.

The First 12

Indianapolis, May 30.—(United News.)—This is how the first 12 leaders finished in today's 500-mile auto classic race, together with their time and miles per hour average:

Position	Driver	Time	M.P.H.
1	Louis Meyer	5:01:33.75	99.42
2	Lou Moore	5:02:17.64	98.81
3	George Souder	5:06:03.04	98.03
4	Babe Stupp	5:21:18.48	92.30
5	Norman Hansen	5:21:47.81	92.28

HAWK-EYE-ING SPORTS

BY DICK HAWKINS

For a Carton of Fags

Down behind the gray walls and frowning bars of the Atlanta Federal prison, behind the silence that envelops those 3,500 men whom the world chooses to call the living dead, there's a humanity that can't be denied.

Looking at four walls and a thousand bars 23 hours a day these living numbers in blue denim have their hour at last when they crowd around an open air ring down on the red clay of the athletic field and see their champions battle with the gloves. The walls are forgotten and even the frowning turret tower above the ring becomes a stadium gallery as these boys in denim shed their blood for a carton of cigarettes.

That's what they get for being pounded around the ring for long rounds under the burning sun. A carton of cigarettes—if they win and much less if they lose. Their fellow prisoners contribute to a fund to buy the fags and their reward is a good fight—many good fights, for none of them are bad.

Wednesday morning we trailed the huge form of Tubby Walton through the iron gates of the Federal prison to watch some boxing matches. Tubby is a big man but he wasn't half as big as the key that blue-clad officer held in his hand as we heard the great gate clang shut behind us.

On to the athletic field through corridors as big and silent as a hospital ward with guards at every hand. Grim-faced guards whose business it is to keep the vaults of humanity.

Just as we reached the ring the big bell rang behind us and the stampede started. Three thousand prisoners—white, yellow, red, brown and black, they streamed from the tombs to the ringside. They jostled and crowded but always well in hand under the watchful eyes of the guards. Their hour had come. Their champions were donning the gloves to fight for a carton or two of cigarettes, and for honor that is supposed to be lacking within those walls.

And how they did fight! If the professions who quibble about the extra $50,000 fought like these fellows do who risk their bones for a carton of smokes, pugilism would be a different story today.

A mall bandit may be fighting a rejuvenated dope fiend and a white slaver may face a liquor runner across the resined ring, but to those men in blue denim these fighters are just men. For a few minutes they are just champions.

As the first contestants climbed stiffly into the ring we heard cries of "get 'em, Peg-leg!" and "let 'em go, Peg-leg!" There was a man with a cork leg ready to fight a wooden-legged opponent. Immediately we saw a farce in store for the crowd. But that was bargaining without the fighters. After four rounds of terrific battling Gilmore, who wears his peg leg on a harness strapped over his shoulder won a decision from Cooper, whose trouser leg covered a limb of cork.

The second bout brought out a curly-haired, blonde lad who looked to be not more than 21 and another fighter who appeared no older. One wondered at first what they might be "in" for. But that question was forgotten as they battled and bled around the ring. Wyrick, the blonde youth, lost the fight, but Robinson, who beat him, knew he had met a Spartan.

The third encounter saw a dumpy little fighter scramble into a corner nearest our seats. His arms and even his legs showed the old scars of the needle. He had been a dope fiend for 15 years and there he was in the boxing arena under a broiling sun to fight with those hands that had handled the deadly needle so long. Wolf is his name and his brother is said to be the composer of "Ramona" and other song hits. He fought a smiling giant whose name matters little where numbers mean more than names. Wolf won the battle decisively and the crowd was for him.

The next battle ended in a draw with Crockett and Boyer, two negroes, facing each other. The fifth bout went to Albin Spaniard, who beat Segar into submission for a carton of fags.

Then back to the aborigine. Two giant negroes stepped into the ring and the program showed them to be "Fat Jackson" and "Battling Siki." Again, what matters a name inside the walls? Two more specimens of physical manhood would be hard to find. "Jackson," who donned the gloves for the first time three weeks ago, won a bruising battle from "Siki" and the crowd was happy. So was "Jackson," for he had enough cigarettes to keep him going for many a day.

The semi-final bout saw a thin man of perhaps 35 years step into the ring to face a youth much heavier and much younger. In the name of the older man there was a strange familiarity. English was his name, but it took the words of Jake Abel, the referee, to bring back the memory of "Wop" English, who fought a preliminary to the Dempsey-Willard fight in Toledo nine years ago. He is the same Wop English, yet not the same. When he entered the ring Wednesday he weighed 130 pounds. He had just come out of the hospital where he lost 30 pounds in illness. Just a few days out of the hospital, but he took a beating at the hands of Proite for a handful of fags.

Denato, a Porto Rican, won the main bout from Wasick, a blonde Pole. He fought like a demon with flashing teeth and sparkling eyes. He would make a great find for some fight manager—outside. Wonder how he got inside?

S.A.L. Nine Wins Over Feds, 10 - 2

Breazy Winn, former Boys' High hurler, let the Commodore Feds down with five scattered hits Wednesday and the Seaboard Air Line boys took the prize to ride by a score of 10 to 2 at the federal prison.

The Air Line boys bunched their hits in the first and second innings, scoring three runs in each. The Feds, for a total of 15 hits to score their 10 runs. Watters and Fagan, S. A. L. boys, were the hitting stars of the game, getting three hits out of five trips to the plate. Winn struck out 10 opposing batters.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Buffalo Bill, Scout of Scouts—Part XVI.
An Adventure on the Trail.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

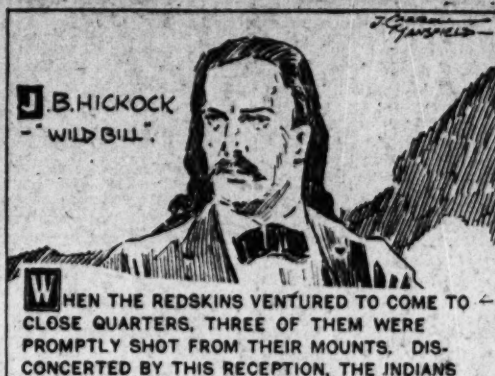

EN ROUTE FROM FORT BRIDGER TO LEAVENWORTH THE TWO RUSSELL, MAJORS AND WADDELL WAGON TRAINS BECAME SEPARATED. SIMPSON, THE "BULL-WAGON BOSS," WHO WAS WITH THE SECOND TRAIN, SET OUT TO OVERTAKE THE LEADING CARAVAN, TAKING "WILD BILL" HICKOCK AND BILLY CODY WITH HIM. THE TRIO WAS MOUNTED ON MULES.

AS THEY DREW NEAR CEDAR BLUFFS, TWENTY INDIANS IN WAR-PAINT CAME DASHING OUT OF A CANYON AND CHARGED TOWARD THEM WITH BLOOD-CURDLING YELLS. AT SIMPSON'S COMMAND, EACH OF THE THREE QUICKLY SHOT HIS MULE.

THEN THE CARCASSES WERE DRAGGED TOGETHER TO FORM A LOW BARRICADE AND THE TRIO PREPARED TO MEET THE ATTACK. FORTUNATELY, THE HOSTILES WERE ARMED ONLY WITH BOWS AND ARROWS, AND AS THEY RODE IN A WIDE CIRCLE THE WHITE MEN COOLLY BEGAN TO PICK OFF THEIR PONIES.

WHEN THE REDSKINS VENTURED TO COME TO CLOSE QUARTERS, THREE OF THEM WERE PROMPTLY SHOT FROM THEIR MOUNTS. DISCONCERTED BY THIS RECEPTION, THE INDIANS RETIRED SOME DISTANCE AND SETTLED DOWN TO WAIT FOR THE DEFENDERS TO MAKE A MOVE. THREE HOURS LATER, THE CRACK OF WHIPS WAS HEARD, AND THE HEAD OF THE SECOND WAGON TRAIN CAME IN SIGHT OVER A RIDGE. THE INDIANS SPEEDILY VANISHED, AND OUR HEROES WERE SAVED FROM THEIR PERILOUS POSITION.

TOMORROW—BILLY CODY, ASSISTANT WAGON MASTER AND TRAPPER.
